2010

Mullingar, Co. Westmeath, Ireland

After months of anticipation, Life Festival 2010 are proud to announce a cracking line-up with lots more news to follow. The festival, which takes place at the magical site of Belvedere House Park and Gardens (Mullingar, Co. Westmeath - Friday 4th – Sunday 6th June 2010) will feature an exclusive performance of The Old School Classical Live Set of Infected Mushroom for the first time in Europe, LTJ Bukem returns to Irish soil after a decade since his memorable gig in Galway, a set from dubstep's big star Joker & Nomad, and a Live set from techno Gods Ben Sims and Surgeon aka Frequency 7 are to name but a few....

Thanks to its new home at Belvedere House Park and Gardens, Louder, Later and Longer is what you'll get at this year's Life Festival.

In addition to the belting line-up, Life Festival will also be unveiling new areas at this year's event, such as the Lakeside Sunset Area which will house Live bands and Chill out music to enjoy along the shore front of the magnificent Lough Ennel.

In a move to help the recession blues, tickets are on sale now for a very reasonable 110 Euro. All tickets include free on-site camping. Camper & caravan tickets cost an additional €35. Details of the VIP Tepee camping area will be announced soon.

Life Festival won Best Dance Festival at the Irish Festival Awards 2009, and where nominated in the Top 10 Best Small Festivals in Europe of 2009. Life is an under 5000 capacity event, allowing for a more personable experience, visited by dance music and free spirited aficionados from all around the world. Life Festival is known as one of "Europe's best underground electronic festivals" and will celebrate its fifth anniversary in June 2010.

THE JAPANESE POPSTARS LIVE

The Japanese Popstars are well on their way to becoming Britain's hottest live dance outfit. They exploded onto the scene in 2008, with a debut album that received heavy praise from The Guardian, Word, Artrocker, NME, Clash, Popjustice, Mixmag, DJ, Radio 1, XFM, and many more, with critics hailing them as the rightful heirs to Underworld, Chemical Brothers, and Orbital.

INFECTED MUSHROOM

(Old School Classical Live Set)

Performing the Old School Live Set for the first time in Europe (sold out in Tokyo) and the only Irish festival appearance in 2010. This top electronic act is at the forefront of electronic dance music and have an extraordinary ability to fuse together elements of techno, dub, trance, drum 'n' bass, ambient house and even blues. They are the perfect act to crescendo Life Festival 2010.

MAD PROFESSOR DUB SHOW

Mad Professor, the true pioneer in the art of dub, over the past 30 years inspired the development of a large portion of the electronic music, we know and love today. A disciple of Lee "Scratch" Perry, Mad Professor was one of the leading producers in dub reggae's second generation. He is a prolific producer of nearly 200 albums and has collaborated with reggae artists such as Sly and Robbie, Pato Banton, and Jah Shaka, not to mention some very well known artists from the electronic genre, such as Sade, Massive Attack, and The Orb. Having earned the name 'Mad Professor' at school for his skills and enthusiasm for technology, Neil Fraser has created a league of his own in his reliance on synthesized sounds; religiously incorporating bleeps and whirs before blending them with live instruments, such as guitar, bass, and keyboards.

BEN SIMS & SURGEON AKA FREQUENCY 7 Live

A sound clash of styles from two mix masters 'Ben Sims' and 'Surgeon', both undisputed leaders in their chosen musical disciplines, create something truly fresh! They create a uniquely improvised journey through cutting edge and intelligent electronic music, combining elements of techno, funk, dub, house, hip hop, disco, industrial and more, whilst utilizing turntables, CD decks, FX and all the latest hardware/software technology to take the listener and dance floor on a journey into unknown territory.

HILIGHT TRIBE LIVE BAND

A travelling community of unbelievable sounds, with a base in France where they have already sold more than 40,000 albums. Known for their 100% live performance of trance and drum & base, the five musicians and one sound doctor at the mixing desk, play live through the use of Didgeridoo, Djembe, Guitar, Congas, Drumbeat or Bass in synchronization with a deep Drum kick. Expect an all organic, psychedelic and ethnic sound mixed with Indian and Tibetan Mantras and technical effects to produce a powerful trance experience.
